Manage your video display and layout
Lync Web App provides a rich video experience for meetings. If you have a camera connected to your computer, click to share your video with others in the meeting. A camera is required only to share your video, not to view the video shared by others. Participants who don’t share their video can choose to display a static picture instead. The area of the screen in which the pictures or videos are displayed is called the gallery.

Join a Lync Meeting with computer audio
If you don’t have Lync 2013, you can join a scheduled Lync Meeting from Lync Web App. In the meeting request, click Join Lync Meeting. Type your name in the text box, ensure the option to install the Lync Web App plug-in update is selected, and click Join the meeting. The plug-in is required to use computer audio. After it’s installed, you can also share your video and programs.

To speed up your entry into future meetings, select the Remember me check box. Depending on how the meeting was set up, you’ll either wait in the lobby or be admitted to the meeting. If you’re in the lobby, only a presenter can admit you to the meeting. All presenters immediately enter the meeting. After you’re admitted to the meeting, you can use your computer’s speakers and mic, or a headset to participate in the meeting.

Join a Lync Meeting with phone audio
In the meeting request, click Join Lync Meeting. Type your name in the text box, ensure the option to install the Lync Web App Plug-in is not selected, and click Join the meeting. After you’re admitted to the meeting, in the Join Meeting Audio dialog box, click Have the meeting call me to enter a phone number where the conference can call you, or click I will dial in to the meeting and call one of the phone numbers listed in the meeting invitation.
